Hi All

Please see the below email Dave Freeman requested that I send to all members re update of the CNBC Competitions.

Hi Everyone,

Thanks to all who turned up for some of the finals this weekend, The rinks was won by J Cox, G Maull, D Freeman and P Robbins who just got the better of j Mold, K Cooper, P Myatt and P Killachy.

Saturday morning saw Shep overcome John Cox in the wood, whilst Fiona Myatt, Roger Hopkins and Dave Freeman won the the triples despite a spirited fight back from J Mold , T Smith and p Robbins.

We then had a lovely lunch, with Thanks to all who made cakes and onto the singles in the afternoon.

Where there were three very close games Ana overcame Linda Boyd, in the ladies final, Tony Smith got the better of Roy Layton in the never won, and Dave Freeman overcame John Cox in the over 60's final.

Onto next week when on Monday at 6pm its the drawn pairs final, and on Thursday the men's singles and men's pairs final takes place same time.

After that watch this space for details of the indoor presentation evening.

Special mention for those who gave up their time to mark, do the bar and lend support to all of the players.

Hope to see you in the week

Dave Freeman
